Baxa Corporation Announces New Chief Pharmacy Officer

Industry veteran Dennis Tribble brings 35 years of pharmacy experience to Baxa management team

Englewood, Colo. – Baxa Corporation, a leading provider of medical devices and systems that automate pharmacy operations and increase patient safety, today announced the appointment of industry veteran Dennis Tribble, PharmD to Chief Pharmacy Officer. In this new role, Dr. Tribble will oversee all Baxa clinical pharmacy matters and help drive product strategy and development.

Prior to his selection as Chief Pharmacy Officer at Baxa, Dr. Tribble served as Chief Pharmacy Officer and Chief Technology Officer for ForHealth Technologies where he oversaw the development and deployment of DoseEdge™ (formerly IntelliFlowRx™), the industry's first fully integrated workflow manager for health-system pharmacy. Baxa acquired ForHealth Technologies, Inc in March, 2009.

Dr. Tribble has held numerous pharmacist and pharmacy director positions, mentored hundreds of future pharmacists through lectures, workshops and writings and is the holder of nine pharmacy-related technology patents. He is the immediate past Chairman of the ASHP Section on Pharmacy Informatics and Technology (SOPIT) and a charter member of the HIMSS Pharmacy Informatics Task Force. Dr. Tribble is extensively published on hospital pharmacy operations and pharmacy informatics, and serves as a reviewer on automation for the American Journal of Health-System Pharmacy.

“The appointment of Dr. Dennis Tribble to Chief Pharmacy Officer reflects the Baxa commitment to understanding the evolving needs of hospital pharmacies and healthcare systems and consistently delivering innovative technologies that ensure the safe delivery of fluid medications,” said Dennis Schneider, Senior Vice President, Marketing and Business Development for Baxa. “Dr. Tribble brings a wealth of experience to Baxa in all stages of the pharmacy life cycle and a dedication to patient and medication safety.”
